Special Leap Day Edition

Delta Zeta Review

Editors' Message

Greetings Sisters!

We wanted to give you a special edition of the DKG Review so you can get to know our new website. Thanks to Sue Ward for her hard work -- the website is beautiful, well organized and extremely functional.

As an introduction to all the information you can access on the website, try this scavenger hunt!

1. Find the Story about the founder of Delta Zeta's parent chapter.
2. Figure out the difference between a Grant-In -Aid scholarship and a Jeannette Gard scholarship.
3. Find the names of the last five Chapter presidents.
4. Find the minutes and finance report from our last meeting.
5. Find a picture of any of our founding members.
6. Find a picture of the Spelling Bee.
7. Find a link to "Pride in the Big Picture, an orientation for new members."

Finally, we would like to try something new, beginning with our next issue - Member Spotlight. It is sometimes a challenge to get to know all our sisters since we have a larger chapter and full business meetings. We will focus on one or two members a month. Please let us know if you would like to be one of our guinea pigs! You can email us at susansawin@aol.com. We will send you a short form and follow up with a telephone call.
